Session 97 - Legendary Line-up #7 -
KING DHRITARASHTRA - Blindness of attachment /
Moral: Always stand up for what is right
(GURU TEGH BAHADUR)

1. The Cost of Ignoring Wrong

King Dhritarashtra was physically blind, but his "internal blindness"– his deep attachment to his son– prevented him from seeing the path of Dharma.

What do you think King Dhritarashtra should have done to keep his son in check?

he should not have been quiet amd told duryodhan that he is doing the wrong thing.

2. Justice Balance

When unfairness happened in the royal assembly, many leaders chose to stay silent to please the King.

If you were present in the royal court at that time, what would you have stood up for?

speak up like a leader and telll them to do the right thing.

3. The Light of Courage

Even though Guru Tegh Bahadur gave his life, his courage became a light for others.

Name three people from history like Guru Tegh Bahadur whose extraordinary courage inspired others to stay brave. Write what you admire most about their "inner light".
